The image shows six vertical wooden planks of varying widths, arranged side-by-side. They are stained a deep, rich brown color, highlighting the natural grain patterns of the wood. The planks are set against a plain, light-colored background. At the bottom center, a small white rectangular label with a thin black border contains the text '1019X12' in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

1019X12

The image displays five vertical strips of wood-grain laminate, arranged side-by-side. Each strip shows a different wood grain pattern, ranging from fine, straight lines to more pronounced, wavy textures. The colors are various shades of brown, from light tan to deep, dark chocolate and near-black tones. The strips are set against a plain white background.

The image shows several vertical wooden planks of varying shades of brown, arranged side-by-side. The wood grain is clearly visible, running vertically. At the bottom center, there is a small white rectangular label with the text '1021X12' in black. The background is a plain, light-colored surface.

Four vertical rectangular samples of wood-grain laminate are shown side-by-side. They have a light tan or beige color with a fine, vertical wood grain pattern. The samples are slightly overlapping at the bottom.

The image shows three vertical wood samples of varying widths and textures, arranged side-by-side against a white background. The leftmost sample is the widest and has a prominent, coarse grain. The middle sample is narrower and has a smoother, more uniform grain. The rightmost sample is the narrowest and has a fine, consistent grain. A small white label with the text '1026X12' is positioned at the bottom center, overlapping the bottom edges of the three wood samples.
